As a student of Vedic astrology, one of the challenges I faced was to study classical texts. We have so much data, and each text has some great content. Most of the translators did not have a chance to validate the principles in the texts and why; the accuracy of the translation was reduced. During the period, I also felt that students at the first of Astrology weapons could progress faster if they are validated knowledge. This is also good for the development of Vedic Astrology. Therefore, I decided to post my notes from various classical texts as a guide. This book consists of my notes from Brihat Parashari Hora, BrihatJatak, Brihat Samhita, Jataka Bharanam, Faladeepika, Saravali, Bhavartha Ratnakar, Muhurta Chintamani and Vishwakarmaprakash. It is a good reference book for a student in the early Vedic astrology weapons.
